REPRINTED LITHOGRAPHICALLY IN GREAT BRITAIN
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS, OXFORD
BY VIVIAN RIDLER
PRINTER TO THE UNIVERSITY
1966

PREFACE TO THE SECOND IMPRESSION

In issuing this reprint of a catalogue which has long been unobtainable, the opportunity has been taken of entering the corrections which have accumulated in the official copy. The majority of these are due to successive generations of readers in the Library. There are probably some corrections which we have failed to notice but over so wide a field it is difficult to keep track of all that is published.

The plan of the Quarto Catalogues did not allow the author to provide an introductory guide to the sources of a collection. This lack cannot be remedied satisfactorily in a reprint, but it is possible to supply a list of the manuscripts known to have come to Tanner from the collection of Archbishop Sancroft. Madan indicated most of them in his list in the Summary Catalogue, vol. III; but the recent researches of Dr. M. Sommerlad on the Tanner collection have brought to light further items. The list printed here is taken with permission from his doctoral thesis.
